

Jon Swire
Real Estate professional

Author. Teacher. Speaker. Mentor.

Jon Swire is one of the leading specialists in multi-residential and NNN investments. Jon recently joined Keller Williams, after working several years at Coldwell Banker Commercial. Prior to that he was at Re/Max Commercial, where he finished as one of the Top 25 Agents Worldwide in 2003-2007, and was the #3 Agent in the United States in 2006. He's earned numerous awards for performance including the Diamond Award for annual commissions earned in excess of $1MM. Jon has brokered over $250MM worth of deals in Los Angeles County and the United States.

Contact:

T (310) 948 2631
E jswire@kw.com

Jon also teaches a class at UCLA Extension titled Real Estate Investment Analysis, which is a 12-week, 40-hour course designed to help students/investors navigate the real estate investment landscape. In addition, he speaks to investment clubs throughout Southern California. Jon's first book, titled There's No Free Lunch in Real Estate, is a how-to guide for investors. Jon has bought and sold over 20 properties himself and currently owns real estate in Southern California and throughout the United States. He holds an M.B.A. from the Anderson School at UCLA and a B.S. in engineering from Northwestern.

Awards:

Diamond Award – Over $1MM in gross commissions
Chairman's Award – Over $500K in gross commissions
President's Club – Over $250K in gross commissions

Education:

M.B.A. from The Anderson School at UCLA
B.S. in Engineering from Northwestern University

Affiliations:

Teacher at UCLA Extension
iSucceed.com Mentor